

GAME IN WASHINGTON WAS STUBBORN BATTLE

Georgetown and Carolina Fight to No Result--Each Eleven Scores Touchdown in First Half--Thomas for the Tarheels Does Great Punting--Shea Stars for Team from the Heights.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., October 26.—For the first time in the history of the two institutions, Georgetown and North Carolina battled to a tie this afternoon, both eleven scoring a touchdown and kicking a goal in the first half, while in the second period neither team was able to cross the goal line, although the ball was in the Tarheels' territory during the greater part of the time.

It was a desperate struggle for supremacy from the very outset, and from the way the Blue and Gray backs tore through their opponent's line during the first few minutes of play it looked as if North Carolina was outclassed and that the college on the Heights would roll up a big score. It took Georgetown just three minutes to make the first touchdown, and after kicking goal amid the cheers of the Blue and Gray rosters, Thomas, of North Carolina, attracted attention for his punting and good line bucking, while Shea was the star player on the Georgetown team.

The line-up:

N. Carolina. Position. Georgetown.
Manning.....right end.....Miller (Lester)
Norwood.....right tackle.....Munhall

Touchdowns—Fitzgerald and Thomas. Goals—Thomas. Referee—Elsman. Umpire—Given (G. U.). Head linesman—Both (C. U.). Line men—Messrs. McNulty (G. U.) and Mann (N. C.). Timers—Messrs. Leaphant (G. U.) and Gray (N. C.). Time of halves—25 minutes each.

BROWN COMPARES SOUTHERN TEAM

Washington and Lee Coach Gives His Opinion as to Elevens' Relative Strength.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 26.—Coach Brown, of the Washington and Lee football team, gives the following opinion as to the relative strength of the teams in the South Atlantic division. For some unknown reason, however, he fails to comment on the Georgetown-eleven. He says:

"The teams in the South are now beginning to round into shape for their more important games; the weeding out of poor material is about over, and the coaches are settling on the men upon whom they will depend for the big games.

"W. M. L. as was the case last year, will have a fast team, stronger offensively than defensively. The men are light, but have the spirit which makes teams and team work. The loss of Massie, Boyce and Hancock from the team is a serious blow. V. M. L. is a man equal to the occasion. V. M. L.'s offense is fast and tricky, and in Poague, at end, she has a good leader.

"Little is known of V. P. L., except that the team is faster than last year, and heavier too. From the scores made, their attack must be powerful, and in Hodgson they have a kicker almost equal to a strong defense. The big score made against Hampden-Sydney gives little light as to V. P. L.'s real strength, but the 6 to 0 defeat of Clemson shows class. Their showing against Princeton was rather a surprise.

"Davidson has practically the same team as last year, and at present is

The Medical Profession Self-Condemed.

Dr. T. D. Crothers, of Hartford, Conn., before the Mississippi Valley Medical Association, also before the Medical Society of Virginia, speaking under the caption, "Disease of Inebriety," made some startling statements, which deserve more than a passing notice.

Dr. Crothers takes the advanced position that inebriety is a physical disease, and is quoted in the New York American of October 16, 1908, as saying: "that inebriety was a far more deadly and widespread disease than consumption. This so-called moderate use of spirits," he said, "was an active cause of consumption and typhoid fever and was accountable for more than 50 per cent. of all classes of pneumonia. In fact, there was no disease known, and no surgical operation performed that was not influenced and made worse by spirits."

OLD STARS DEFEAT VIRGINIA TEAM

Varsity's Saturday Practice Shows That Eleven Is Far from Championship Form.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 26.—The fact that the Virginia varsity eleven was defeated Saturday 5 to 0 in two short halves by a team composed of Coach Cook, Crawford, Waples, Hume, Jones and Cecil Dabney of last year's team; Faville, the former Cornell guard; Thraves, of Richmond College; Woodhouse, of Randolph-Macon; and Pigott, a former Yale man, shows that the team is far from championship form, and that much remains to be done from now on in preparation for the contests with A. and M., of North Carolina, the Virginia Military Institute, Georgetown and North Carolina.

While the team is undoubtedly stronger than last year, there is yet lacking that dash and spirit so much in evidence in the game with Georgetown last season. With the single exception of Harker, who is playing quarter back in his old-time form, there was little of the spectacular shown by the varsity players Saturday. On the other hand, Crawford and Waples, two of last year's stars, made sensational dashes, which aroused the enthusiasm of the stand. Crawford had to have lost none of his cunning, and it is a pity that they have played their four years out.

The utter abandon with which they ripped through the line and circled the ends, evading the varsity tacklers, was simply astonishing, and must have set the regulars a-thinking. The plays were run off with great rapidity, and this was the undoing of the varsity. Waples and Crawford each made forty-yard runs, and Crawford finally plunged through the line for the single touchdown.

Harker never gave a prettier exhibition of open-field running than he did in Saturday's practice game. On several occasions he was laid low by vicious tacklers, but he regained his feet and was off again for runs of twenty to thirty yards. After receiving a punt near the close of the game, he got through the whole eleven, and but for Pigott's great tackle, which forced him out of bounds, the Texan would have gone for a touchdown and tied the score.

The practice given the varsity Saturday was perhaps just as beneficial as a regular game. In addition to tackling the ex-stars above mentioned, the team played two short halves with the scrub eleven, or reserves, which the day before went over to Staunton and defeated the S. M. A. eleven.

CHASE CITY, VA., October 26.—The National Beagle Club of America is holding its annual meeting at Chase City. The meet began Friday, October 23d, and has been a great success, many prominent beagle fanciers from all parts of the country being in attendance. The winners are given in the summary, which follows:

Class 1—Novice dogs—Rock Ridge Anchor, first; Somerset, second; Anchor, first; Somerset, second; Anchor, first; Somerset, second.

Class 2—Limit dogs, over 13 and not over 20—Rock Ridge Driver, first; Nordley Baronet, second; Somerset, third.

HARNESS HORSES MAKE GOOD MARKS

During the season just closing forty-two trotters entered the 2:10 list, nine of which were green horses without marks at the beginning of the season, and nine others previously in the list reduced their records.

In the pacing division thirty green horses took part of the season. High ball by Dr. Hooker won the fastest mile, stepping in 2:03 3-4, and Jack Leburn, by Alty Leburn, put in a heat in a winning race in 2:04 1-4. Lillian R., by J. T., with a heat in 2:05 1-4, and John Ward, by Bingen, in 2:05 3-4.

Alceste (now dead), by Jay Bird, with a mark of 2:07 1-4, was the fastest green trotter of the season. High ball by Dr. Hooker won the fastest mile, stepping in 2:03 3-4, and Jack Leburn, by Alty Leburn, put in a heat in a winning race in 2:04 1-4. Lillian R., by J. T., with a heat in 2:05 1-4, and John Ward, by Bingen, in 2:05 3-4.

The results of yesterday's play at the Henricas links narrowed the contest in the women's golf tournament handily down still further, and to-day's play will probably determine the winner. The results of yesterday's tournament contests are as follows:

Miss Winston defeated Miss Weisner two up. Miss Tompkins won from Miss Crane by the score of three up and two to play, and the match between Miss Meredith and Miss Gray was a draw. The contest was narrowed down to Miss Meredith, Grant, Boyd, Winston and Tompkins.

Refers to Train Columbia. G. T. Kirby, chief adviser of the track and field team of the University of Virginia, has engaged "Trainer" Bagnie" Weathers. Columbia is in a position whereby it can reap the benefit of the athletic facilities of the University of Virginia, and there is no section of the country that offers any college such a greater number of games. Mr. Kirby has instructed Trainer Weathers to take advantage of these opportunities.
